AutoVIN to Provide Information Services for Auto Financial Group

Carmel, IN—ADESA announced today that AutoVIN, the company's professional information services subsidiary, has been selected to provide vehicle inspection services for Auto Financial Group across the U.S., primarily for its residual-based, credit union financed vehicles.

"We're pleased to be able to work with a great company like Auto Financial Group," said Andrew Snetsinger, director of sales and marketing, North America, of AutoVIN. "AFG is an innovative company and a leader in the residual-based credit union industry.

Auto Financial Group CEO Richard Epley agreed, adding, "AutoVIN's use of advanced technology and commitment to customer satisfaction definitely coincides with our company philosophy, and I look forward to the efficiency and effectiveness that they bring to the table."

AutoVIN, The Automated Vehicle Information Network, provides professional field information services to the automotive industry. AutoVIN's services include vehicle condition reporting, inventory verification auditing, program compliance auditing and facility inspections. AutoVIN goes beyond the boundaries of traditional automotive field service organizations by using highly qualified, company-employed field managers and advanced computer technology to process data accurately and deliver actionable results to customers in a timely manner.
